The History of the Midway

The Midway Restaurant (located Midway between Columbus and Indianapolis on Old Route 40) first opened in 1939. It was built to replace the Glass Front Inn which served 65 cent T-bone Steak Dinners and 10 cent Limburger Sandwiches. Serving Southwest

Ohio and Indiana for sixty years, the Midway Restaurant expanded in 1999 to a new 6000 sq. foot building across U.S. Route 40 from its original location.
